00:05 <v ->Hi, my name is Marisa Kelly,</v
00:07 and I am the President of Suffolk University.
00:10 I'm so proud to be a part of this community,
00:13 where all of us are focused on one thing,
00:16 ensuring that our students have access
00:19 to transformational educational opportunities
00:22 that prepare them for professional success
00:25 and to have a positive impact on the communities
00:28 in which they live and work over the course of their lives.
00:31 We are all focused on achieving that mission,
00:34 employees at every level of the organization.
00:38 That's what makes it such a special community.
00:41 We're all focused on the same thing.
00:43 We're all rowing in the same direction,
00:45 and we all know that every one of us is making an impact.
00:50 We are critical to the success of our students
00:53 and the success of this institution,
00:55 and because of that,
00:56 we are committed as a university community
00:59 to ensuring that we are supporting all of our employees
01:04 in the ways that they need.
01:06 This is an inclusive community
01:08 full of so many opportunities.
01:12 We have jobs posted on our website.
01:14 Please take a look.
01:15 I am sure you will find something there
01:18 that is the right fit for you
01:20 as you look to take the next step on your career path.
