00:01 My name is Emily Vecchiarell, I use she/her/her pronouns.
00:05 I'm the Assistant Director of Graduate Programs
00:08 in the College of Arts and Sciences,
00:09 or CAS as it's often referred to.
00:12 And I work in the CAS Dean's Office
00:14 on floor 12 of the 73 Treemont Building.
00:17 I work with all of our current and prospective
00:20 graduate students in the College of Arts and Sciences.
00:22 So we offer graduate programs in a wide range of fields
00:25 from our Master's of Science in Mental Health Counseling
00:28 to our Masters of Arts in Graphic Design.
00:32 I'm here to help our current graduate students
00:34 navigate Suffolk University and the college,
00:36 from graduate student orientation,
00:38 all the way through to graduation.
00:41 I'm also a resource for anyone
00:42 that's considering a graduate degree here at the college.
00:45 I know that oftentimes the decision
00:47 to pursue a graduate degree is a challenging one.
00:50 So please feel free to reach out at any time
00:52 or stop by the Dean's office to introduce yourself.
00:55 I'm always happy to chat about
00:56 what it's like to pursue a graduate degree
00:57 and the different degrees and opportunities
00:59 that we offer here at CAS.
01:02 Pursuing a graduate degree is a key step
01:04 in achieving your personal and professional goals.
01:08 The CAS Dean's office, myself included,
01:10 we are here to help you navigate the college, and Suffolk,
01:14 and everything that there is to offer here.
01:16 So stay in touch.
