Food and Clothing Collection:
Throughout November, items needed by local organizations that serve the hungry and homeless are being collected. Donation boxes are located in the Center for Community Engagement and many other campus locations.

Non-Perishable Food: Donate non-perishable food items to support both the BostonCANshare program and the establishment of an on-campus food pantry for Suffolk students.

Warm Clothing: Clean out your closet to help those in need by donating clean, gently used clothing for adults and children. Donations will be given to Cradles to Crayons and New England Center for Homeless Veterans.

Kick-Off Event: “Everyone deserves a home - and everyone has a story.”
Thursday, 11/6, 1-2:15, Donahue 403
Kendra Hanlon from the Speakers’ Bureau will be joined by two currently, or formerly, homeless individuals who will share their personal stories. Together we will explore the various ways that people could find themselves homeless, what options they have once they are, and solutions to implement to address homelessness.

Community Servings: Pie in the Sky
Sunday, 11/16, 11:15-3:30
Help with baking, boxing and labeling pies for this annual bake sale that funds meals and nutrition programs for the critically ill.

Greater Boston Food Bank
Wednesday, 11/5, 11/19, 4:45-8:30
Inspect, sort and pack donated grocery products that are then distributed to hunger relief agencies.

Social Justice Film Series: Flow
Wednesday, 11/12, 5:15-7:30,
Poetry Center, Sawyer Library
Join us for a screening and discussion of a documentary about the privatization of the world’s dwindling fresh water supply that focuses on politics, pollution, human rights, and the emergence of a domineering world water cartel.

Supper Clubs
Oasis Coalition: Mondays, 5:30-7:00
Church of the Advent: Tuesdays, 4:45-7:00
Paulist Center: Wednesdays, 4:45-7:00
Join members of the Suffolk Community to help those in need by serving meals.

Oxfam Hunger Banquet
Thursday, 11/13, 12:00-1:30,
Suffolk Law School Function Room
Learn how others experience hunger, class, wealth distribution, and other social issues during this interactive role-playing meal. Admission is $1 or a non-perishable food item.

Pasta Dinner at Heritage Apartments
Tuesday, 11/18, 2:30-6:00
Prepare, serve, and share a meal with elderly residents living in supportive housing.

Saturday of Service: Boston Healthcare for the Homeless
Saturday, 11/22, 11:15-3:30
Participants, supervised by a member of the program's staff, will do an arts and crafts activity and play games with the community.
