Scope and Content

The photographs of Suffolk University document several facets of University history and life including events, people and places, student life and organizations and athletic events. The identity of the photographers may be professionals contracted by the University, students or staff, or unknown; the following is a list of photographers that have been identified in the collection: Michael Carroll, Duette Photographers, John Gillooly, Henry Photo, Herwig, Sandra Johnson, John C. Meyers, Parotta, Shipley, Siteman, Martha Stewart, Pete Vandermark. Because the University does not own copyright to all of the photographs in this series; copyright permission must be obtained from photographers in order to reproduce or use a photograph.

Series Description for SUJ-004.01: Student life, 1920-present, n.d.

Volume: 9.8 cu.ft. 49 boxes, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Chronological

Scope: Photographs in this series show all aspects of student life at Suffolk University. They cover student clubs and organizations, dances, award ceremonies, theatre and drama club productions, students in classrooms and libraries and concerts or speakers geared specifically to students. Photographs that focus on University events are located in SUJ/004.04. If folders include negatives, press releases or other items that information is noted. It is important to know that many people worked on arranging and caring for these photos; because of this, much of the original information associated with the photographs may have been lost. Every effort has been made to create folder titles and dates that accurately represent the contents and the event depicted. However, it is possible that the folder title and date do not match the event and photos in the folder. A general example of this is folders with the designation “Guest Speaker.” Because these folders typically contain headshots of an individual or show someone speaking in front of a crowd, they were titled “Guest Speaker” whether or not it was that type of event. A specific example of this is the folder “Pie Throwing Contest, c. 1970s.” No event information came with these photos and they were marked “no date” but because all photos showed someone having pies thrown at them sometime in the 1970s, a folder title was created to give it a description that was as accurate as possible. In many cases complete descriptions of the events here are not available but information may be pieced together from various sources such as The Beacon Yearbook (SUH/005.01), The Suffolk Journal (SUH/001.001) or other places within the Records of the University.

Series Description for SUJ-004.02: Athletics, 1949-2004, n.d.

Volume: 2.8 cu.ft. 14 boxes, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Alphabetical by sport and chronologically within each sport.
Scope: Athletics photographs showcase the history of sports at Suffolk University from 1940-2004. These images cover Division III varsity sports and intramurals; they are categorized by game pictures, team portraits, player pictures, events, and include some contact sheets and negatives. Event photographs within this series include images such as cheerleaders recruiting for the squad and “Senior Day” for the tennis team. However, photographs of general athletic events such as the annual Athletic Dinner are filed in the events series (SUJ-004.04). Date information for all photos was cross-checked against the Beacon Yearbook. For example: photos that span 2003-2004 but were featured in the 2004 Beacon are dated 2004. Associated Materials: See also: Beacon Yearbook (SUH-005.001), Suffolk Journal (SUH-001.001), Press Releases (SUA-012.002), and News Clippings (SUA-012.001).

Series Description for SUJ-004.03: Buildings and Places, 1936-2002, n.d.

Volume: 2.6 cu.ft. 13 boxes, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Alphabetical by location.
Scope: These photographs document the evolution of Suffolk University’s urban campus of buildings, places, streets, and surrounding areas in downtown Boston, from the 1930s through the early 2000s. Most of the photographs are exterior or streetscape shots taken by students for The Beacon, the Suffolk University student yearbook from 1974-1979. Most campus buildings are represented and have images of their interiors (including classrooms), exteriors, and construction. In addition to campus buildings, the photographs feature offices, classrooms, and students in and around the Suffolk University campus.

Volume: 9.6 cu.ft. 48 boxes, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Chronological
Scope: The photographs and contact sheets found here cover events that are considered relevant to the entire University, offices in central administration, and faculty. They show events such as commencements, president testimonial dinners, retirement parties, or building dedications. Photographs that focus on students and their activities, dances, and organizations are located in Student Life (SUJ-004.01). If folders include negatives, press releases, or other items, that information is noted. It is important to know that many people worked on arranging and caring for these photos; because of this, much of the original information associated with the photographs may have been lost. Every effort has been made to create folder titles and dates that accurately represent the contents and the event depicted. However, it is possible that the folder title and date do not match the event and photos in the folder. A general example of this is folders with the designation “Guest Speaker.” Because these folders typically contain headshots of an individual or show someone speaking in front of a crowd, they were titled “Guest Speaker” whether or not it was that type of event. A specific example of this is the folder “Pie Throwing Contest, c. 1970s.” No event information came with these photos and they were marked ‘no date’ but because all photos showed someone having pies thrown at them sometime in the 1970s, a folder title was created to give it a description that was as accurate as possible. In many cases complete descriptions of the events here are not available but information may be pieced together from various sources such as The Beacon Yearbook (SUH-005.01), The Suffolk Journal (SUH-001.001) or other places within the Records of the University.

Title: Unidentified negatives, n.d. (folder 2 of 2)
Series Description for SUJ-004.05: Administrators and Faculty, 1919-2000s, n.d.

Volume: 2.6 cu.ft. 13 boxes, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Alphabetical

Scope: This series contains images of Suffolk University faculty, administrators, and staff, from 1919 through 200s. The focus of these photographs is squarely on the employee listed on the folder; however it may be necessary to check other photograph series to see employees at events or interacting with students. Single letter folder titles, such as “B,” indicate all last names begin with that letter. Dates in parentheses reflect dates of service in a position; non-parenthetical dates at the end of a folder title reflect the date range of folder contents. Most photographs were acquired from student yearbooks (The Beacon and The Law School Yearbook/Lex) or the Public Affairs office.

Series Description for SUJ-004.08: Lantern Slides, 1906-1920s, n.d.

Volume: 0.1 cu.ft. 1 box, Location: Room 515, Arrangement: Numerical by slide number Scope: This series consists of lantern slides, which are positive transparent images on glass. It can be presumed the 44 slides from the early 1900s were part of a slide presentation used by Gleason L. Archer. Many of the slides document the evolution of the Archer Building, from site selection, to construction, and through its cornerstone laying dedication ceremony on August 4, 1920. Other slides document the early history of Suffolk Law School.
