candidate after one has dropped out. The decision came two days after the judges heard arguments in a shawnee county courtroom. That's something both sides were happy with, as election night is nearing... And this ballot battle has been ongoing since chad taylor dropped out on september 3rd. Wagnon: this is october 1st, we've waited weeks for this resolution. It could've happened weeks ago. Kobach: it's too late to appeal. We've got to get on with the election. The secretary of state told me those ballots have gone to the counties for printing.... And he plans to move ahead with the election. The democrats say they're going to concentrate on electing the candidates they still have in the race... Although they wouldn't be sorry to see pat roberts lose in november. In topeka, pilar pedraza, eyewitness news. The secretary of state says he's spoken with some lawmakers who are upset with today's ruling and wouldn't be surprised to see them change the state law in the upcoming legislative session. A new poll out today... Shows democrat paul davis with a slight lead in the race for governor. He leads republican sam brownback by four percentage points. The rest say they are undecided or will vote for libertarian candidate keen umbehr. This is a poll of 500 likely voters done by the usa today and suffolk university. Of all the ads playing on your tvs ... We've seen campaigns from both political parties take very complex topics ... Votes ... Or actions ... And turn them into five second statements. Without giving you enough background to make a decision on your own. So factfinder 12 investigator lauren seabrook is sorting through the claims education has become the centerpiece of the governor's race ... That's why most of the claims you'll see in political ads relate to it. But education funding can be very confusing ... So we're breaking it down starting with the first claim of paul davis' most recent ad. 20:05-20:13 "for governor brownback, it's all happy talk about himself and negative attacks on paul davis while for the rest of us it's about the facts." and we're here to tell you what's fact in these political ads ... And what's not. 20:14-20:16 "brownback made the largest education cut in history" we find that claim to be misleading. Here's why ... Take a look at this chart that shows how much money each school district gets for each student. This is the cut davis' campaign says the largest in kansas history - it's when governor brownback took 232-dollars per student. But back in 2009 ... Democratic governor mark parkinson cut nearly double what brownback did ... He just did it in four cuts instead of one. Lauren seabrook, factfinder 12 investigators. That ad talks about three other areas of education ... Class size ... Test scores ... And higher ed tuition. Tomorrow night - lauren continues her fact-check on this davis ad for factfinder 12. New Kansas Senate Race Poll Shows Roberts Trailing

Roll Call | 10/01/2014

Independent businessman Greg Orman led Sen. Pat Roberts, R-Kan., by 5 points in a new USA TODAY/Suffolk University poll released Wednesday.

The poll showed Orman at 46 percent and Roberts at 41 percent.

The Kansas Senate race is unexpectedly competitive this cycle. The last time Kansans elected a senator who was not a Republican was 1932.

But Roberts has struggled with residency issues and an attack line that says he's spent too long in Washington, D.C. After Democrat Chad Taylor dropped out weeks ago, though Kansas Secretary of State Brownback blasted New York Times
